

Rev. Kaleigh Corbett-Rasmussen, Pastoral Care Assistant

Rev. Kaleigh Corbett-Rasmussen (she/her/hers) is an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church. Originally from Northern New Jersey, she graduated with a degree in Biology from Birmingham-Southern College in Alabama in 2009 and then returned back to New Jersey and graduated with her Master of Divinity at Drew Theological School in 2014. She has served United Methodist churches as Associate and Lead Pastor in Basking Ridge, Princeton, and Augusta, NJ since 2009 and most recently as Lead Pastor in Milford, Pennsylvania.

Kaleigh is an active member of the Greater New Jersey United Methodist Conference and is a member of the delegation to the Postponed 2020 General Conference of the United Methodist Church. She is passionate about social justice and LGBTQ+ inclusion. Kaleigh is involved locally with the non-profit organization Community Coalition for Children, which helps children thrive in the Southeastern Connecticut area.

Kaleigh and her wife, Leyna, live in Waterford with their seven-year old son, Jesse, who keeps them busy! In her free time, she enjoys hiking, being near the water, cooking, baking, yoga, playing flute in the Waterford Community Band, and spending time with her family.

